

IS YOUR MUM ONE IN A MILLION? JANUARY 2018

SQUIRE HOTELS

Squire Hotels have launched a search to find the region's top mum and give them a truly special Mother's Day.

Each of the 3 hotels within the group have launched a "Mum in a Million" campaign, a search to find the area's most deserving mum.

Jodi Masterson, managing director at Squire Hotels said: "Often the hard work and support mums give can go unnoticed and we really wanted to create a memorable day for one special mum.

"We've put together a prize for the area's most special mum, including an afternoon tea for mum and family on Mother's Day and an overnight stay which can be booked at any point over the rest of the year. All we need to know is why should your mum win? What makes her the best mum in the region?"

The competition is now open, so if you have a heart warming story about why your mum should win send us your nomination by Monday the 26th February. Entries can be sent in by email to competition@squirehotels.co.uk or by post to KRPR, Innovate@Arundel House, Ackhurst Business Park, Foxhole Road, Chorley, Lancashire PR7 1NY.

The prize will be a gourmet afternoon tea for four at the hotel on Mother's Day and a luxury overnight stay with breakfast and evening meal for two, to be taken over the next year.

Available to all on Mother's Day, the hotels will be offering a special afternoon tea package with free Prosecco or a Mother's Day lunch. For more information visit www.squirehotels.co.uk
